Intercultural activities

organised by partner organisations

Students’ Union – International Students Office
The International Students Office of the Students’ Union provides advice and assistance for international students regarding any questions they might have when they first join the University as well as during the further course of their studies. If necessary, staff from the office can accompany international students to appointments with the local authorities. It also organises intercultural events.

Düsseldorf Student Services: Cultural activities
Düsseldorf Student Services (Studentenwerk Düsseldorf) organises cultural activities and excursions that encourage communication and exchange between students and allow them to explore Düsseldorf and the surrounding region together.

University Sports
A wide range of about 60 sports disciplines, where possible free of charge, is currently available for students at the participating universities in Düsseldorf. Simply go along and join in (remember to take your student ID card). For most courses no registration is necessary (exceptions are indicated in the course descriptions).

Muslim University Community (MHG)
The Muslim University Community is an association of Muslim students from the universities in Düsseldorf that was set up in 2010. It sees itself both as a lobby for Muslims as well as a contact point for interested parties.

International Protestant Student Community (ESG)
The Protestant Student Community (ESG) is a source of advice and support for international students. German and international students get to know each other in the framework of joint activities. Students from all countries and of all religions are very welcome.
STUBE Rheinland – Development Education Programme
STUBE Rheinland is a development education programme for students from Africa, Asia, Latin America as well as interested students from Europe. It comprises workshops on topics such as intercultural competence, development policy and sustainability.

Catholic University Community (KHG)
The Catholic Student Community (KHG) advises international students, especially in (financial) emergencies and helps them to find funding and apply for scholarships. It also puts them in touch with counselling services if they find themselves in difficult circumstances.

ERASMUS Student Network (ESN) Düsseldorf
ESN Düsseldorf organises parties, events as well as a weekly get-together for ERASMUS students and puts them in touch with mentors. Further information can be found on Facebook.

AEGEE Düsseldorf
AEGEE Düsseldorf is a non-profit association and an official representation of AEGEE Europe. AEGEE promotes exchange, intercultural understanding and education.

Düsseldorf Aktiv
Duesseldorf-Aktiv.net is a voluntary initiative that finds mentors for international students. For new Düsseldorf citizens, the “Welcome to Düsseldorf” team offers, amongst others, tours of the city, excursions and a discussion group to help them improve their German language skills.

Mosaik e.V. – Centre for Intercultural Dialogue
Mosaik e.V. is an association in Düsseldorf that offers language tandems and organises regular intercultural meetings, study trips and events.
